

Billy Yrad is a highly skilled Senior Industrial Designer. Originally from the Philippines, migrated to Elyria, Ohio in the early 2000s.

Billy's passion for design and innovation began at a young age. He studied Industrial Design at The Cleveland Institute of Art and worked for several leading companies in the Cleveland area. His diverse cultural background and international experience gives him a unique perspective on design and an ability to bring new ideas to the table.