

Betsy Trump has served her entire career up to this point in education, first as a teacher and currently as a School Counselor. Betsy earned dual Bachelor's Degrees at Ohio University in Spanish and Spanish Education. She taught high school Spanish in Camden, New Jersey before completing her Master's Degree in Education in School Counseling at Wilmington University. Betsy is currently a School Counselor and the Department Chair of the Counseling Department at Elyria High School where her caseload is half of the school's ninth graders. She founded the building's Equity Team and participates in the district Equity Task Force by planning and facilitating training for all district staff. Betsy is currently a co-advisor of Elyria High's Black Student Union, has planned and executed multiple student field trips focused on college and career options, and serves on the board of Leaders of Today, a local leadership development organization for teens.